

Creative Arts & Design Tutors Vacancy, Milford, Surrey

Join us as a YDA Tutor and inspire the next generation of creative professionals. As a YDA Tutor, you will have the opportunity to lead creative arts/design workshops for young people who are interested in pursuing careers in the creative sector. You will help them to develop their skills, confidence and portfolio, as well as to explore the possibilities of entrepreneurship and innovation in the arts/design field. You will work in a supportive and collaborative environment, where you can share your expertise and passion with others.

Job Description:

The main responsibility of this role is to deliver existing courses created by the YDA. Candidates may also propose to develop and deliver new courses, with guidance from the YDA team, which meet the learning objectives and needs of the participants. The courses are usually span over a period of six weeks, with one session of 90 minutes per week.

Key responsibilities:

- Deliver course(s) for 6 weeks (1.5 hours/week) with Centre Leader's approval.
- Plan sessions with sustainability in mind and work in an eco-friendly way.
- Maintain health and safety standards for sessions
- Manage stock control and levels to meet projected needs.
- Monitor, evidence and record progress of participants, producing brief reports
- Review sessions after completion and adapt as needed.
- Attend sessions, planning discussions and meetings as required.
- Use YDA's training to improve your skills and service.

Person Specification:

At YDA, we aspire to be the preferred destination for students who are interested in pursuing design as a career. We welcome people who want to join our team who have a creative art/design qualification, share our enthusiasm for inspiring others, a passion for their chosen career paths and a willingness to guide young people in the right direction.

Part-time, zero-hours contracts available. Rates dependent on the applicant's experience and qualification
